

Information for students (see page 26 of the access and participation plan for more information)

We share information on fees and financial support with prospective students at in-person events (including our open days), email communication and publish the fees that we charge on our webpages.

Increasing continuation and improving completion and attainment for all students regardless of entry qualifications, family experience of higher education, household income or _____