

Impact of Alcohol

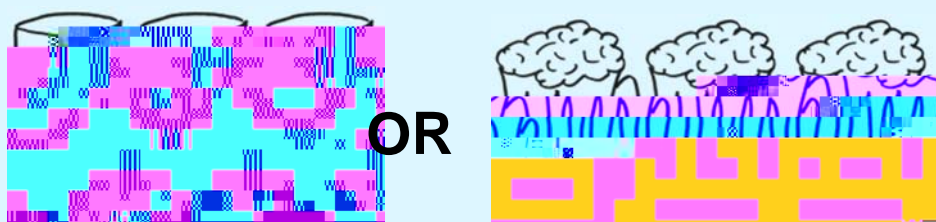

Approximately two units:

You're talkative and you feel relaxed
Your self-confidence increases
Driving ability is already impaired

Approximately four units:

Your blood flow increases
You feel less inhibited and your attention span is shorter
You start dehydrating, one of the causes of a hangover

Approximately six units:

Your reaction time is slower
Your liver has to work harder
Your judgment may decrease

Approximately eight units:

You're easily confused
You're noticeably emotional
Your sex drive may decrease
